

Female CPR

39%

Of females receive bystander CPR when needed.

23%

Males are 23% more likely than females to survive cardiac arrest.

1 in 5

Females die from heart disease in the United States every year.

"Women over dramatize incidents."

"I don't know how to perform CPR on a female."

"I will be accused of inappropriate touching."

Common bystander myths and fears identified by the American Heart Association in 2017.

The act of CPR is the same across all genders. Everyone deserves this life-saving care.

For more information, please visit ea-cpr.com